Facts And Circumstances Test ExplanationsFacts And Circumstances Test

It is our conclusion that MSI Integrity passes the 10% Facts and Circumstance Test based on the following: 170(A)-9(F)(3)(ii)- Attraction of public support- MSI Integrity's mission is to research the human rights impact and value of voluntary initiatives that address business and human rights, facilitate learning in the field, and develop tools to evaluate initiatives from a human rights perspective. In 2018 the organization compiled and released research into the effectiveness of voluntary business and human rights-related initiatives. This includes free assessment tools that are available for the public to use to measure the effectiveness of multi-stakeholder initiatives from a human rights perspective. These activities have the potential to attract support from governments and public charities. 170(A)-9(F)(3)(iii)(A),(B)- Percentage of financial support and Sources of financial support- As a young organization MSI Integrity has been fortunate to develop relationships with two large, national, private foundations that have provided continuous support to grow the organization in size and capacity. These grants are multi-year in nature and in accordance with GAAP recorded in full when awarded. If the revenue was recognized when the funds were received, rather than awarded, the public support test for 2018 would be 28.98% rather than 17.89%. No employee or board member of MSI Integrity has business or family relations with either of these two foundations. In addition to the large multi-year grants received from the two foundations, from 2013-2018 MSI Integrity received funding from foreign governments, and individuals. MSI Integrity's fundraising, historically, has been conducted primarily by direct, personal contact with potential donors, carried out under the supervision of officers and directors of MSI Integrity. In the six year of existence MSI Integrity has grown from one part-time employee to three full-time employees by the end of 2018. MSI Integrity is actively working to diversify its funding sources to build up wider public support, including creating a new portal for donations from the public on its website and engaging a consultant to assist with grant writing and fundraising campaigns. 170(A)-9(F)(3)(iii)(C) Representative governing body- MSI Integrity is governed by a board of directors comprised of three academics who have special knowledge and expertise about human rights and global governance. It does not have any representation from the foundations or donors who support it. We are actively recruiting for additional board members who are members of the community and have special knowledge or expertise in the field of the organization, and anticipate expanding the board in 2019. 170(A)-9(F)(3)(iii)(D) Availability of public facilities or services; public participation in programs or policies.- MSI Integrity publishes scholarly studies and tools that are widely available and used by colleges, universities, and members of the general public. In 2018, the organization developed a global research network of MSIs to help facilitate dialogue and critical reflection on MSIs among researchers and practitioners. In addition, the staff of MSI Integrity regularly participated in dialogues, conferences and research workshops to share research and good practices.
